FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LifePath Hospice Hosts Light Up a Life Events
Remembering Cherished Loved Ones with Holiday Memorial Ceremonies

TAMPA, FL (November 15, 2017): Offering an affirmative way to acknowledge and appreciate cherished loved ones, LifePath Hospice hosts “Light Up a Life” events on three separate dates: Tuesday, December 12; Wednesday, December 13 and Thursday, December 14. Starting at 6 p.m., each holiday memorial ceremony, which is free and open to the public, will take place at several locations throughout Hillsborough County.

“For those of us who are fortunate, the holiday season is a time to be with family and friends,” noted Allyson Moskowitz, Director of Social Services, Bereavement and Volunteer Services at Chapters Health System. “But many people are at a loss as to how to recognize those loved ones who are no longer around to be present for the festivities. With our community remembrance called Light Up a Life, people have the opportunity to remember those cherished individuals who have passed.”

At the free event, participants can take part in the remembrance ceremony by lighting candles in celebration of loved ones. After an evening filled with music, memories and honored traditions, Light Up a Life concludes with the lighting of the cedar tree on hospice grounds.

The following are the dates and locations where Light Up a Life ceremonies will take place:

- ❖ Tuesday, December 12 at Melech Hospice House, 11125 N. 52nd Street in Temple Terrace
- ❖ Wednesday, December 13 at South Tampa Resource Center, 3010 W. Azele Street in Tampa
- ❖ Thursday, December 14 at Sun City Hospice House, 3723 Upper Creek Drive in Ruskin

About LifePath Hospice

LifePath Hospice, an affiliate of the Chapters Health System, is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that supports approximately 7,400 each year in Hillsborough County as they face the challenges of advancing age and illness. Healthcare professionals and trained volunteers embrace the LifePath Hospice mission to make the most of life by relieving the suffering of patients and their families affected by serious health issues. Since 2008, the organization has been accredited by The Joint Commission, the nation’s premier healthcare accrediting body and in 2017 was awarded deemed status. In addition, LifePath Hospice first received accreditation from the National Institute for Jewish Hospice in 2007, which means that the staff members have undergone specialized training to better serve the needs of patients and their families across the entire range of faith traditions and observance within the Jewish religion.
