Chapters Health System Recognized for Seven Consecutive Years as a Great Place to Work[®]

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL (June 18, 2024): Chapters Health System is proud to announce its certification for the seventh consecutive year as a Great Place to Work[®] in the Aging Services category by the independent analysts at the Great Place to Work[®] Institute. This distinction was earned based on extensive ratings by team members in anonymous surveys. A summary of these ratings can be found here.

"We are incredibly grateful to our team members for their invaluable feedback, which enabled us to achieve this milestone for seven consecutive years," said Andrew Molosky, MBA, FACHE, president and chief executive officer for Chapters Health. "Their commitment and dedication are the cornerstones of our success, and it is their insights that help us continuously improve our work environment and culture."

Team member feedback helps benchmark our progress as we continue to focus on engagement and move input into action."

In 2024, 76 percent of team members said Chapters Health is a great place to work compared to 57 percent of employees at a typical U.S.-based company.

"Great Place to Work Certification isn't something that comes easily – it takes ongoing dedication to the employee experience," said Sarah Lewis-Kulin, vice president of global recognition at Great Place to Work. "It's the only official recognition determined by employees' real-time reports of their company culture. Earning this designation means that Chapters Health is one of the best companies to work for in the country."

According to Great Place to Work research, job seekers are 15 times more likely to find a great boss at a certified great workplace. Additionally, employees at a certified workplace are 93 percent more likely to look forward to coming to work. This is music to the ears of Chapters Health as a certified Great Place to Work.
